Obituary of Tyrone Charles Anderson Please share a memory of Tyrone to include in a keepsake book for family and friends. View Tribute Book Tyrone Charles Anderson, a devoted husband, beloved father, grandfather, brother, and cherished friend, passed away on July 24, 2025, at the age of 77. Known to many as Ty, he was admired for his brilliant, inventive mind and a sharp wit that could light up any room. Always quick with a joke, Ty brought joy and laughter to everyone he met. He had a remarkable talent for building and fixing just about anything; if it was broken, Ty could fix it. He is survived by his wife of 58 years and the love of his life, Barbara; his sisters Laurie, Darlain, and Judy; his daughters Melody, DeAnna, Heather, and Miranda; and his grandchildren Reggie and Zoe. He also leaves behind several nieces, nephews, and countless friends whose lives he touched. In honor of Tyrone's memory, and in lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Prostate Cancer Foundation at <https://www.pcf.org/donate>. A celebration of life will be held August 8th at 10:00 am in the sanctuary at First United Methodist Church of Pearland, 2314 N. Grand Blvd, Pearland, TX 77581.

I first met Ty 41 years ago when I traveled to the Twin Cities on my first business trip when I was 21. I extended my stay to stay the weekend with my Grandma Ryberg and Aunt Orlene (Barb's mother and my Dad's beloved sister). Barb and Ty came over and we all had dinner together. I then visited Barb and Ty when I went to Houston some 15 years later when I was on another business trip. We had dinner at Barb and Ty's house. Ty to me was a man for all seasons and people. A man truly inspired by the Holy Spirit. Who could have done all that he did, and marry the love of his life out of high school and spend the next 58 years making so many people, including his beloved Barb and their four beautiful children feel supported, happy and loved. Truly, Tyrone Anderson was a great and Godly man! Love you all and our condolences are with you at this difficult time. Betty Ryberg and Phil, Rodger and Nathanael Grant

My Uncle Ty's wit and sense of humor was like no one else I know. I loved that he always contributed a bit of fun into our family group chat, which consists of all female family members and Ty. He really embraced being surrounded by women his entire life. I am so honored to be his niece and will miss him dearly.

My memories of Mr Anderson is of his silent strength, calm and warmth which he freely offered to everyone, not just his family. I am blessed to have known him and I am thankful for his wonderful acceptance every time we met. He will be terribly missed by everyone!

I spent many a starfilled night with my baby brother lying on a blanket next to the old milk house with a flash light and an encyclopedia. We would search for constellations in the the beautiful, clear Minnesota night sky.

I remember the 1960's yellow Mustang he had, and sold before I turned 16. Smart man. I also had a lot of fun helping him on occasion working on one of his cars, or rebuilding the engine of my old sports car.

My Dad had a great sense of humor and for the last few Halloweens, he loved to scare the trick-or-treaters with his big baby mask. Seeing him in that mask always makes me laugh. I miss you Dad.
