Obituary of Yueh-Hsia Sarah Huang Please share a memory of Yueh-Hsia to include in a keepsake book for family and friends. View Tribute Book Yueh-Hsia Sarah Huang passed away on Friday, July 11, 2025, in Pearland, Texas, at the age of 90. She is preceded in death by her parents, Kai-Jun Lin and Qiao Liu; and her husband, Jen-Huang Huang. Yueh-Hsia will be dearly missed by her sons, Kuangzoo Samuel Huang and wife Jennifer, and Liaw Huang and wife Jessica; grandchildren, Jeremy and wife Lan-Anh, Nathan, Elizabeth, Dorcas, Sarah, and Gloria; along with a host of many other family and friends. Yueh-Hsia was born in Taiwan where she attended nursing school and received training in occupational therapy. She married her husband while working as a nurse in 1963. Together, they moved to the United States in 1979 where she began working as an LPN. While living in upstate New York, they started a hotel business and ran it successfully for 14 years, before moving to the Houston, Texas, area in 2005. Yueh-Hsia resided in the Bella Vita Retirement community, and became a very active member of the senior centers of Pearland and Friendswood. She enjoyed line dancing, clogging, quilting, and cooking for her family. Yueh-Hsia will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved her. Yueh-Hsia's family will receive guests during a visitation on Saturday, July 19, 2025, at Clayton Funeral Home of Pearland, from 6:00 to 7:00 pm.

Yueh-Hsia Sarah Huang

Rosemary Carraway posted:

Sarah and I traveled to a strawberry field with a Friendswood senior group many years ago. We also line danced in Friendswood for many years and enjoyed lunch with groups throughout the years. Sarah was a very talented seamstress and a generous person with various creative items of her hobby. Very fond memories of this kind and gentle lady.
