Obituary of Christopher Alvear Please share a memory of Christopher to include in a keepsake book for family and friends. View Tribute Book

Christopher Alvear passed away peacefully at home in Houston, Texas, on Friday July 4th, 2025, at the age of 56. He is preceded in death by his parents, Floyd and Rosie Alvear. Christopher leaves behind to cherish his memory his loving wife, Natalie Alvear; brother, Jerome Alvear; sister, Georgina Hernandez; nieces, Rachel, Ashleigh, Gaia, and Ithaca; nephews, Liam and Ainmire; mother-in-law, Elena Gilshenan; brothers-in-law, Ryan Gilshenan and wife Octavia, and David Harris; his dogs, Charlie, Maisie, and Miles; along with a host of many other family and friends. Christopher was a dedicated and loving husband to his wife Natalie, a great friend, a wonderful son, and brother. He was an introverted quiet man, but he was extremely loyal and protective of his family. You could always rely on Christopher to be trustworthy and honest. In his spare time, he loved collecting records, magazines, and anything related to music. Christopher will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him. A Celebration of Christopher's life will be held at Clayton Funeral Home of Pearland on Friday, July 18th, 2025, from 5:00 to 7:00 pm.

I remember when I started at The Blood Center over 20 years ago. He was my trainer and we shared a love of hair metal, specifically, Motley Crue! Chris was a great guy and a wonderful co-worker. He will be missed immensely. Sending light and love to Natalie and all those who loved Chris. Lisa Torres "Unable are the loved to die, for love is immortality."--Emily Dickinson
