So many fond memories shared with Eric and Chris. They were frequent visitors at our home during the years they lived in Friendswood. May the many times they stood around Merrell's firepit sharing food, beer, and exchanging stories (which may have been exaggerated) bring good memories and bring comfort to Chris and her family. Love and hugs always, Linda

Sending our love to Chris and all of your family and Eric's family. We have many happy memories spent with you and Eric in the short time we knew each other. Including Eric's corny jokes! May you have comfort that he will always be with you and we pray for your family to have peace in a lifetime of memories. Love James and Barbara Sabino
