Hardy went first so it up to me his wife Shirley to send this message. One of those trips to the hill country was to our acres. We spent one whole morning traipsing and exploring the boundaries and some of the special places of our property. Bobby really enjoyed the walking and the giant sandwich I made him for lunch. It had a little bit of everything in it . I feel that Hardy and Bobby are talking and laughing about the high jinks of their youth. I'm very sorry I could not be there today. Love always Shirley Smith
