I am still in disbelief that dear Lucrecia is gone. I saw her a few months ago unexpectedly and after too many years. She was her same beautiful self, inside and out. Always enthusiastic, positive and full of joy. She will always have a special place in my life, and especially during my time in Washington when we worked and celebrated life together, and later when life brought us both to Texas. My deepest sympathies to her beloved family. I very much hope your memories of her love, warmth, strength and joy will always stay with you and bring you comfort.
