Armando, it has been such a pleasure being a part of your life and hearing all the incredible stories you never seemed to run out of. I will sorely miss catching up and discussing movies and books you'd recommend to me. If the world had more people like you, there would be no more sadness, so I will continue to honor you in life by spreading the same love that you had for all people who were lucky enough to cross your path. I look forward to the day we can meet again.
