He is preceded in death by his parents, Olide and Edmonia (Landry) Mallet; brothers, Andeal Mallet and John Paul Mallet; sisters, Louella Lormand, Sally Floyd, and Birdie Guidry. Ed loved to hold Clara’s hand every chance he could. He would often steal a smooch when he could, even in his later years. They enjoyed traveling the world together with France holding a very special place in their hearts. He always wanted Clara to accompany him on his business trips. Ed’s family meant the world to him; he was put on earth to be a “girl dad”. He loved his girls dearly. If you needed anything, he was there for you. He was also a good listener and shared his wisdom but let you make your own decisions. Ed spent several weeks each summer with Clara and the girls going on vacation, camping, fishing, skiing, and swimming. He would try to make the waves especially rough to knock his kids off their skis or tubes. Ed was later blessed with 5 grandsons! When they were young, he loved getting them muddy and taking them fishing. He enjoyed taking the grandchildren to Adventure Land & the hunt for the blue eye green eyed bear. Ed supported the boys school activities and enjoyed seeing them excel or have fun doing whatever they loved. When they left, he would always give them his signature goodbye “see you later

Q: How did you meet Edmond? A: First met Ed at Leonville Elementary 2nd grade when my dad bought a 75 acre farm from Leonce Lanclos in 1949. He was a real prankster and loved to play practical jokes on his friends! We were graduates of Leonville High School class of 59/60 and attended many class reunions together. Ed secured his diploma from T.H. Harris Trade School in Industrial Electronics and excelled in his vocational endeavors! My son Jeff went to work with Ed while Ed was managing Bibbins&Rice Houston Office. His wife Claire and I both lost our spouses to the dreaded disease Alzheimer's. May my friend Rest In Peace! I served with Houston Police Department from 1963/67.
