Obituary of Philip Lee Dunn Please share a memory of Philip to include in a keepsake book for family and friends. View Tribute Book Philip Lee Dunn age 65 of LaPorte, TX left this world on April 3,2024. His last moments on this earth were at his home, surrounded by those he loved. Philip was born in Corpus Christi on November 19, 1958 to Fred and Helen Dunn. At the age of 13, while listening to a sermon on the radio, Philip received the Lord Jesus Christ into his life. Later, in his early 20's, after the tragic loss of his mother, he moved to Houston, TX. He started attending Prairie Garden Baptist Church where he met the Wheat family and his eventual wife, Robin. Philip and Robin were married on September 15, 1984. Philip was very active at Prairie Garden as the music director and in various other ministries. A few years later, Philip and Robin relocated to Shady Acres Baptist Church, a church they grew to love along with the pastor, Brother Jack Wood. They were both active at Shady Acres, doing what they could to help the church, while also raising their family for the Lord. Philip became the choir director while also serving in the jail and prison ministry. After serving at Shady Acres for almost fifteen years, Philip was called as founder/pastor of Lighthouse Baptist Church here in LaPorte where he served until his graduation to glory. Pastor Dunn was always passionate, caring, loving and very particular with everything he did. He was always looking for a new joke to put a smile on someone's face. He loved to clown around with his grandchildren and loved his Blue Bell. He had the biggest heart for LaPorte and His church family, even if, as he would say, "they walked on my grass"! He fought a good fight and finished his course. He was a great soldier of Jesus Christ, faithful to the end of his race. Philip is preceded in death by his mother, Helen Christene and his father, Fred Stanley. He is survived by his wife of 39 years, Robin Renee along with their children, Tammy Drake, Joe (Ruth) Dunn and Christine (Jacob) Ralph. He is also survived by his siblings: Stanley Dunn, Charles Dunn and Sylvia Workman who he

Words cannot express what Bro Phil means to my family, but I'm going to give it a shot. He was a Friend that sticks closer than a brother, he would give you the last of everything he had then ask if he could do anything else for you. He was Thankful.... didn't feel that he deserved what he had. He was Gracious. Pastor would lead by example when he asked to give money to Missions then ask you to give yourself wholly to God. I have seen Bro Dunn give and help people that No one else wanted to help, he was just that giving. He would go all around the world just to help someone in need.. On the other side of that, don't cross him, it wouldn't turn out good. Not bring sacrilegious, he reminds me of God, they way God loves but don't get on His "bad side". I have fond memories of Preacher, texting jokes, and funny things... he always liked to laugh and make others laugh. I can't wait to see him again in heaven. God Bless the Dunn and Ralph Family.

I'm Debbie, Phil's favorite sister-n-law LOL!! He was my family member and a dear friend to me. He loved me unconditionally. He always gave me good advice when I asked him. He was a LIGHT in the community of LaPore where he was a Pastor of Lighthouse Baptist Church. He wanted everyone he came in contact with to know the Lord Jesus Christ as their personal SAVIOR. . He will be truly missed but knowing he is no longer suffering from cancer and walking the streets of gold is a relief to me and his family. He loved my sister Robin so much and his children and grandchildren. Knowing I will see him again one day is comforting to me. Love you, Phil

GARRY AND TINA TYREEWe first met Bro. Phil years ago, as part of the "Texas crew" that would come up with Bro. Danny Farley to our missions conference. After their first visit, it just wasn't missions conference without them. After answering the call to pastor Lighthouse Baptist Church, he allowed us the honor of being part of LBC's annual spring revival. Those two meetings became the highlights of our year. Bro. Phil, in our eyes, was a man of God, simply put. He was "balanced"; gentle but protective, of his family and his flock; kind but uncompromising of God's truth. He was a faithful man, a great pastor, a dear brother in the Lord, and one of our dearest friends. We love you, Brother Phil. What magnificent glories you are beholding! We'll see you again one day! When we join you around His Throne, there will be no more goodbyes! What a Day that will be!!

What an honor to have had this man of God in our lives. Many have already expressed testimonies of his kindness, generosity, sense of humor and other qualities that made Preacher a man. I say amen and amen. Other than his faithfulness I must say that the wisdom God imparted to his servant was the most treasured quality any called Pastor could desire to obtain. I told him on more than one occasion that a man would be loco to want to pastor a church. How often could me and countless others give witness to the sage advice we received. Another refreshing quality was his ability to teach us to enjoy Christian liberty without being a compromiser. He also taught us to live out of the hand of God. How many pastors would have the stones to only take up one offering a week, even during special meetings when the church was about 8 times normal attendance. I ain't being critical I'm just saying. We could go on for a while about what Brother Phil meant to us but until we meet our friend again, In his words; "Quit ye like men. Quit being a pusillanimous pipsqueak, you probably got your wife's drawers on." I love and miss my friend.Go forward.

Bro. Phil was such a blessing to my wife and I and Calvary Baptist Church here in Eufaula, OK. He preached the last several years on the last Sunday in April, which was our Faith Promise Commitment Sunday. He and Mrs Robin and Lighthouse Baptist Church were such an example to us for missions giving. Our Church was greatly inspired by their faithfulness! The Dunns and Lighthouse Baptist Church were always "over the top" in hospitality when we came for a visit or for Missions Conference. It was always the highlight of our year to come for that meeting. He was always talking about the things that he learned from Bro Jack Wood and Bro Danny Farley. The last time I spoke to him a few days before he went to be with the Lord, I told him that the way he felt about those men was the way that we felt about him! And I meant every word of it! Though I could write about many great memories of Brother Phil, who in the later years I referred to as "Preacher" a name he well exemplified, I will write of the one constant memory of Preacher that I have. Preacher was my friend here and still is there. A friend that was always for me. A friend that helped me in many different ways but certainly not to be forgotten is how many times he helped financially and prayerfully get to and fulfill the work our Lord had sent me to. Countless times he would say to me I need to know how much those tickets to Ukraine and Romania and Mexico and Paraguay and places I can't recall at the moment all so he could pay to get me there. Always more confident in me than I was in myself, I'm speaking of a friend that was always for me. Always encouraging me to go forward with The Lord Jesus Christ saying let's just keep serving The Lord together my friend. Of course this was his advice to me when things were going smooth and exactly the same when it was unbearably rough. I could go on for pages but will stop on this Preacher showed himself friendly when we met about 25 years ago or so and called me friend in our last conversation here. I will always remember Preacher as being a friend to me and to our Lord. How could I forget as Mrs. Dunn and their family and Lighthouse are friends to me only because Preacher was first friend to me. Thank you for it. Sincerely Your grateful friend Terrell Jackson

And when he speaks to you believe in him, Though his voice may shatter your dreams as the north wind lays waste the garden. For even as love crowns you so shall he crucify you. Even as he is for your growth so is he for your pruning. Even as he ascends to your height and caresses your tenderest branches that quiver in the sun, So shall he descend to your roots and shake them in their clinging to the earth. Like sheaves of corn he gathers you unto himself. He threshes you to make you naked. He sifts you to free you from your husks. He grinds you to whiteness. He kneads you until you are pliant; And then he assigns you to his sacred fire, that you may become sacred bread for God's sacred feast. All these things shall love do unto you that you may know the secrets of your heart, and in that knowledge become a fragment of Life's heart. Kahlil Gibran

I've only known Bro. Dunn for about four years. We were temporarily relocated to the Southern Houston area for eight months. We wanted to find a good Baptist Church to attend, so we did our research and decided we would visit Lighthouse Baptists our first Sunday. We pulled up for Sunday School and here was this tall man wearing a cowboy hat in front of the church. It was the first day of Missions Conference and so we attended every service that week and the following Sunday. Then we attended every service after that for the next eight months. It was evident from the beginning that Preacher did not just preach a sermon, but he gave to us that which he had gotten from God. He aimed to provide what he had gotten from God and not to impress man, but to please God; with good old-fashioned, Holy Ghost, anointed preaching. In those eight months, God knitted our hearts together. My wife and I came back often for visits from Iowa, and when we heard that Pastor had gotten sick, we prayed for direction, and God relocated us back in Texas. We were able to share his last day before going home to Glory with the Lord, whom he sincerely and obviously loved. I thank God that I got to spend time with him these past few months. I remember one week I was wrestling with God, looking for an answer from Him. I told no one, not even my wife as it was between me and God. In a Sunday night message, Bro. Dunn answered the question I was desperately seeking, and then he looked over at me. That happened several times, but that one time was so clear! I was afraid to move. So often he brought that other world into the services, and we all knew and experienced God's presence. I love this man and look forward to seeing him again. I know he impacted many lives, and I am thankful that he impacted mine. Tim Starr

I grew up around a lot of preachers, pastors, church workers, and singers and honestly looking back I have a hard time differentiating which memories belong to which person. There's a lot of "who was that?" Bro. Phil is not one of those. I actually have so many good memories of Bro. Phil it's hard to narrow it down; working in the church building, gardening, him singing, he was really always doing some kind of work. I haven't seen or heard from him in about 20 years but I can still hear him saying "Hot Dog!" weird I know but I feel like he said it a lot when I was growing up and anytime I hear those words I still think of him. Oh and funerals. I remember us all packed into the Dunn's suburban with Bro Phil driving and going to every single funeral of any person who died who knew anyone at church or was a relative of someone at church. There were a lot. You wouldn't think it would be fun but we would all end up laughing on the ride at some point. (Mom and Mrs Robin would sometimes crack up at the funerals but I remember us kids being better behaved.) One of the very few times I visited his church in La Porte I was 21, I was struggling and it was obvious. I was going to visit with the Allen's, missionaries who I would only get to see if I went because their schedule was packed. So even though I should have stayed home I went to his church in the same outfit I had worn Saturday night (not church appropriate at all and I knew it) and I sat through the service and even had a meal with him and Mrs Robin. The entire time I was there he was kind. I'm sure there was a lot said when I left lol but he could have treated me like I was beneath him and his church that day and he didn't. I still appreciate that act of generosity of spirit. He was genuine and the respect I had for him in childhood stayed and only grew as time passed. He will be remembered with that same respect and care in the coming years. I know his family will miss him and you will be in my prayers.

After arriving in Texas, our first Sunday started out as an everlasting experience. Pastor was at the door with his big, brimmed cowboy hat, as he directed us to follow this grumpy lady to where Sunday School was being held. With a big smile, he motioned us in the foyer, which started a life changing decision to attend LBC. That grumpy lady was Robin, and it was one of many times that he would be sporting her and making everyone laugh, or be at ease, with playful jesting concerning their relationship. Clearly you could see the love behind his words, as this couple was an example for all. So, every service we attended, we would round the corner of the block and look up to see if Pastor was greeting everyone at the door. There was just comfort in seeing that. Preacher was so kind. He was thoughtful and always forward thinking. He had sent flowers many times to Iowa or here – and always addressed the card from Pastor Dunn and ‘your’ church family -- for my birthday, for our anniversary, the loss of my mother, and even just because they were thinking of us. We had received cards and kind words, and who led the charge to send all of that? Of course, he did. He would say, “Good morning, Ma’am,” or “How are you doing today, Ma’am,” and you could tell that every word or question was from the heart. He was so sincere, even up to the last time I saw him, and he greeted me. I looked forward to when he would play the piano and sing, while silently pulling out my phone to record the music. I was given his CD and gave one to my dad who stated that he listens to it every single day. Praise the Lord! I know that the Holy Spirit is touching my dad’s heart through Pastor Dunn’s music. And I thank Pastor for making that CD. I also thank him for the many prayers. He told me that he got up very early to pray for folks as he had a lot of people to pray for daily. I asked him if he needed a little more time to rest, and his response was that there would come a day that he rested, but that time was not now. Yes, many times, Pastor would pray with us at the altar, with tender guidance he would say if there were no answers to the prayers yet, just keep on, keeping on. We still do not know why the Lord ever brought us to this specific church and this church family. We could guess, but there would be many different reasons. One special reason is that a son and his family moved to the Houston area and have had a church home to attend for a couple of years now. Pastor brought them into the fold and the granddaughters just loved Preacher. I couldn’t thank Pastor and Mrs. Dunn enough for making them at home and a part of the family. Any parent would appreciate this, especially knowing that their children were being looked after while we were so far away. He also gave a charge to my grandson, who at a young age believed he was called to the ministry. I wanted, so many times, to tell Pastor thank you for everything. I wanted him to know that one day I thought I would retire, and we would move to Houston and finally be full-time members of this church. I was looking forward to that day, with him being our Pastor. Well, he always was our Pastor (whether we were full time or travelers,) and now he knows my heart anyway. So, I think back to him preaching and loved how after he preached, he would lean over the pulpit and add his own personal message to whatever was on his heart. We could expect him to say at the end of the personal message, “That’s all I know.” Or another great phrase, “That’s just a little Dunn-ology.” How about, “Let’s go to Church!” Or “Praise His wonderful name!” His voice will live on in my memory forever! I have so many fond memories of him and Robin, in such a short time, that I can only say, they truly have blessed my life. I looked up to Pastor Dunn as a God-fearing Preacher and a great example in his Christian walk. I will miss him and his pre

Bro. Dunn was my third favorite preacher. I'll never forget a road trip in 2014 when my best friend and I listened to a message he preached at Bluegrass Pike Music Church titled, The Power of God. That message helped me so much. Preacher wanted everyone to know the fullness of a life wholly yielded to Christ. His example and the way he shared his heart had a tremendous impact on my life for the glory of God. Through his music, I learned that praying is so much more important than talent but to always do my best. The Dunn's were so kind and generous to me - I am thankful for the opportunity to have visited them and washed dishes for revival meeting a couple times. So many wonderful memories made in their home. Bro. Dunn's vision for the future and what God could do was contagious and has given me more hope to pray on for the impossible.I'll never forget his little sayings. They made you laugh even if you didn't completely understand them. Every time I wanted to be really sad when thinking of Bro. Dunn getting to the end of his race, I could hear him preaching at my church and saying, "y'all are too melancholy. Have a head like a melon and face like a collie." I remember him saying, "You ought to always have a melody in your heart that'll crank your scooter." He knew when to say something a little wild to get people's attention and wake them up. "Some people aren't just sucking on a dill pickle, they're sittin' on one, too."I am so grateful for Bro. Dunn letting the Lord use him to be a blessing to my church and family.

There is really no words to express what Preacher meant to me. He was my family and I know no mater what I could always count on him. His passing brings back the memories of when my mother and I first started attending durning the mid week serves Preacher would give me 20 dollars and told me I could get anything I wanted just no beer or cigarettes. Then before mother and I got all the way in he would let us nap in the sanctuary on Sundays in-between services because it was too far to drive. He would also pay for mom and I to stay in a hotel close to the church durning Revival and we could eat at his house with all the other preachers that came in, it made Revival feel like a vacation and showed me that church could be fun. When mom and I where in the middle of moving to La Porte and I was going to school there but we still lived an hour away, Preacher and his wife would take turn meeting my mother halfway and taking me to school. Then when moms car broke down and she needed a new one he let me and mom use his till he found us a car. He would always make sure we were taken care of. He always encouraged me in my school and music. One of the first times I heard and fell in love with blue-grass music was at Lighthouse during a Revival. He loved that I loved music. He would let me and a few others stay at the church between services on Sundays to practice and learn an instrument. Then when I started to play in my band at school he and a few other people in the church would come to my concerts to support me. Then when I was nervous about finding a job or going to collage he helped me look and encouraged me. He was there at mom and I's house warming. He was at my sixteenth birthday. He was always there at my biggest moments. I knew he prayed for me everyday before I woke up. I knew that no mater what the problem was or where I was he would always help me. However I think one of the most imported memory's is that he was there when I got saved on a Thursday night on the front pews in Lighthouse Baptist church. At the end of service we sat down and talked. I was too emotional and overwhelmed to talk but he said that it felt like I was finally clean on the inside. While I am sad that Preacher is gone I am so thankful I had him in my life, without him I don't know where I would be.

Bro Dunn was a true Shepherd to the people at Lighthouse. He truly cared about us and wanted the best for us. He was a Guard as well, he would give everyone a fair chance, but he was very discerning and made sure to keep the wolves out of the church. I remember one time at church, services had already started and a guy, who had never been to church before, walked in and sat on the front row next to one of the young ladies, even though there were many other places he could have sat, and Bro. Dunn let him know right away that he was being watched and that he was armed and ready to protect his flock. Bro. Dunn has been a Rock in my life since I came to LBC. He was a Pastor like no other I have ever had. I am greatly going to miss him in my life. As a single lady I know he watched out for me. He would check on me when bad weather was coming, from time to time he would check on my car and if he saw something that needed to be taken care of made sure I knew about it. Then would ask what the outcome was. Other times he would just ask me how my car was doing. If I was headed out of town, by myself, I was to let him know, when I was leaving and when I got to my destination and the same for coming home. He always knew how long the trip should take. One time I had not checked in, as my car had broke down and i was trying to get things taken care of, so I got a text to ask if I was OK, and what had happen. The next thing he asked, after I told him what happened, was did he need to come get me. I knew he would have come even though I was hours from home. Thankfully I was able to tell him my friend was coming to get me and I had everything under control. I have always known he was praying for me and truly cared. He was a true Man of God and a great example to anyone who had the privilege of knowing him. He has been a great blessing in my life and I know I will be able to keep going forward because of all I learned from him. I will greatly miss Bro. We have many fond memories of our close friendship and our fellowship down through the years including a few mentioned below: We enjoyed many curry suppers together. The chicken and curry sauce was poured over hot, steaming, rice. Then peanuts, raisins, coconut etc. were added. MmmMmm good. We could consume large pots of curry and, as I recall, Joe and Christine eating as much as the adults. Brother Phil did a good job moderating the annual church valentine fellowship. And it was always a blessing. One year he had a beautiful enclave, with nice chairs set up, for couples to get their photos taken. He assigned me to take the photos and most couples present had their photos taken when I discovered that I had put no film in the camera, that was before digital cameras and film were required. Instead of Brother Phil getting angry he just announced that was a practice run and now Brother Carl has put film in the camera and we need to do it again. The Lord would come down and bless the services as Brother Phil played the piano and sang medleys. Brother Phil was the choir director at Shady Acres Baptist Church for many years and The Holy Spirit would come down and the whole church would get a blessing. Many times the presence of God would be so strong Brother Phil would get 'The CAN'T HELP ITS' his coat would come off and he would swing it around a few times and let it go. I think he wiped out half the front row of his choir more than once, but they just kept on singing and glorifying The Lord. As with any building project, many finishing up items were required. Some of them were major but Brother Phil worked diligently, and mainly without any physical assistance, in finishing up the work. Christine had a large attendance at her high school graduation exercise and I had the special honor and privilege of participating in the exercise. I think she graduated as both Valedictorian and Salutatorian in her class. SABC was able to purchase a large facility in LaPorte that covered a city block. On that property Brother Phil started the Lighthouse Baptist Church and, under direction of the Holy Spirit, grew a strong, mission minded, church which gave liberally to missions every year and was a blessing to the city and all who attended. There were several large buildings on the property and all in need of repair. The main auditorium ceiling was leaking and ceiling joists and rafters were rotted and required replacing. All the buildings, and roofs, were in run down condition. Brother Phil was able to restore all the building and transformed the whole block into a beautiful facility. Their friendship has enriched our lives. We were saddened that, due to health issues, we were not able to attend Brother Phil's funeral. Brother Carl and Lora Beth Wright

There's a lot to be said about Bro. Phil Dunn. Wish I was better with words. He was such a real person. He was faithful. He was a true friend. He genuinely loved people. He was absolutely hilarious. He was so encouraging. He could talk to you & you could feel the Lord's presence. He could sing the house down. He could preach & the Lord would convict my heart every single time. I have a lot of memories about Bro. Phil that I could write about, but I'll pick 3. 1. I can't remember the year, it was probably middle/late 90's... Bro. Phil was singing at our campmeeting. It was one of the most memorable services I've ever been in. The Lord was moving so much while Bro. Phil was singing that I heard people shout who have never before or since then. He always let the Lord use him, through singing, preaching, or just having a conversation with someone. 2. When Dad had his heart attack in 2015, Bro. Phil hopped on a plane & came to be there for his friend. He came on a Tuesday, and just sat at the hospital with us. I'll probably never forget sitting there with him that day. Then he preached for us on Wednesday night. Our church needed encouragement & Bro. Phil sure brought it. And he brought a check, of course. Bro. Phil was always giving! 3. In January this year, he mailed me a book that another preacher had given him. He wrote me a little letter & signed it "see you soon". When I saw his handwriting on the box (I recognized it immediately, because he'd mailed me stuff before.), I couldn't believe it. In the last months of his life, he took the time to do something like that. That's the kind of man he was. I can honestly say, the Lord has used Bro. Phil & Mrs. Robin to make a huge difference in my life. I'll miss him like crazy. We start camp meeting tonight, and I sure wish he'd be with us again, but I know I'll see him soon. There is not time or words enough to express an adequate tribute to this wonderful man. He was so much more than just a pastor to me. He filled such a huge space in my world and my heart and mind and grieve at the thought of how I will continue without him. My dear preacher was the greatest pastor anyone could ask for, a dear caring friend and way better than I ever deserved. When I stumbled in the doors of Lighthouse, broken and bitter, he extended the Love of Christ to me and my daughter. We did not bring anything to offer the church but burdens, still Brother Dunn and the rest of Lighthouse made us feel like a cherished part of the church family. The presence of the Lord in the services drew us, but the compassion and care of Bro. Dunn won my heart and kept us at Lighthouse. When we were first visiting, we were driving from Conroe to La Porte for services, and he would regularly catch us at the door and give me and sometimes even my young daughter money, but he would always admonish us "No beer, no cigarettes!" He just wanted to make sure we were taken care of. It was so easy to submit my life to Lighthouse with him at the head of it. I never doubted his intentions for me were always to be closer to the Lord and to be happy in Jesus. Bro. Dunn would always text me to make sure my pipes were wrapped during a freeze, when I got a new gas dryer, he installed it, when my car was on the fritz, he lent me his truck so I could make it to work, when I couldn't afford the repairs, he foot the bill. I always felt safe and taken care of because he was just a phone call or text away and I knew I could rely on him for any need. As a single woman in his flock, he took special care to complement me when I wore a new dress to church in the most caring and respectful way, knowing there was not another male in my life to make me feel pretty. I will miss those kind words. Preacher's biblical instruction, practical guidance and strong spirit filled preaching has been the greatest gift and has been the cornerstone of my Christian walk for the last 13 years. I am eternally grateful for all the prayers and sacrifice made by him for me and for Lighthouse. I have grown so much in my walk with the Lord because of Preacher. I don't know where I would be without him. Preacher, There are many crowns waiting for you and I cannot wait to see you in that other world, restored and as you have desired to be, like Him. One day very soon we will all be together with eternal joy! Until then, please know that your work in Christ continues in the hearts and lives of those you have pastored for so long. I had been coming to the Camp Meeting at Shady Acres Baptist Church for a couple of years, before I was ever called upon to preach. I remember being called to preach on a Thursday morning and afterwards at lunch, Bro Dunn come up to me and wanted to get to know who I was. So we talked and he asked if I would come to his church for a Sunday in September later that year. I was just starting out on the Evangelist trail and was excited to have another place to go and preach. Little did I know, how much of a friend Brother Dunn would become to me. That was one of his characteristics, he was a friend. From then on, he asked me to make our September Sunday an annual meeting. I would start in Laporte, then go down to Harlingen for another meeting. Each time I came to the church, I got to know the people better and the Preacher and his wife (Mrs. Robin) better. I remember the first time they invited me to their home behind the church for Sunday lunch (homemade lasagna). I thoroughly enjoyed just hanging out with them. Some of the things they did, reminded me of my own parents (listening to the scanner, his work ethic, the way Mrs. Robin treated Bro Dunn) and it made me feel right at home with them. I always appreciated how he helped me become a better preacher. He took time to talk to me about certain personal topics for preachers and would just give good counsel. While preaching in his pulpit, he would help you preach. There were a few years I couldn't make it back to Lighthouse Baptist Church, but during this time he would call and text to keep in touch. I remember one particular phone call, where all he said was, "Hey buddy, I'm for you". That helped me a bunch as I was going thru some struggles of life. One day the Lord impressed upon my heart to give the Preacher a call. He was happy as always to hear from me and after talking, he wanted me to come by for a Sunday. I was a bit nervous about going for my own personal reasons. I still remember the Sunday morning we pulled up for church, he was at the door and immediately came out to greet me. After the pleasantries, he turned and said, "Is this your wife? Well, introduce me". After that introduction and greetings, everything else fell into place and the Lord used the Preacher once again to encourage me and my wife. I will miss my friend and encourager. It was very short knowing you Pastor Dunn, but so much to speak about your goodness, your profound impact in my life. When we first found out that there was a mission church of Shady Acres close to our house my husband Hobo Mott was excited. He attended Shady Acres in the 80's but the drive was too far so he quit attending. It was around Christmas time and we went to spy out the land. We knew if Lighthouse had a christmas tree in the foyer it was not going to be good. So we visited one Sunday and no christmas tree. We went back to the church we were attending and reported to Leo. Within a few weeks and we were all at Lighthouse. There have been a lot of changes in my life the last few years. Brother Dunn has had to wear many different hats (not just a cowboy hat)...As Preacher Dunn, God gave him the ability to wield his sword with honey. He knew exactly what messages and how firm to be and how to sprinkle in the jokes so the message would not cut too hard. He always wanted us to grow in the Lord.As Pastor Dunn, he had to perform lots of duties and be strong for us when his heart was also broken in a bazillion pieces. I will miss his strong shoulders to lean on.As Husband Dunn to the widows, he always looks out for us gives advise and help keep us on track. He is always worrying about how we were doing and getting things taken care of at the house. He was always prayerfully giving advise on how to handle the big and little things. He was always very kind and gentle with our hearts.As a Father and Grandfather Dunn, he always wanted to hang out with the kids sitting at the front of the church. I think this is where he was the most comfortable. When my grandson Joseph was 3-4, if he did not get to shake Preachers hand before he left church he whined until they turned the car around to take him back. Brother Dunn loved all the little children and later thier children.I will miss my Preacher and Pastor very much. I am so much better for being a member of Lighthouse Baptist Church! He truly had the touch of God on him when he preached, and when he played the piano and sang with such passion and love for the Lord. I only regret not making it to Lighthouse years earlier. Our story began here at Lighthouse, during a camp meeting and Pastor Dunn witnessed it all develop. I remember him watching "Strech" talking to a girl in the parking lot. It was so sweet to have him marrying us, in the kiss picture you can see that smile that was so characteristic of him. He was such a good friend, taking care of others, and he was always aware if someone had a need and was ready to meet it. We have so many fond memories of him and his goodness toward our family. He was a great musician and the song services were always a blessing to us, one could fill the Holy Spirit moving in the hearts, he will surely be missed but we rest assured that he is enjoying praising Jesus right now and we are certain that one day we will join him in the heavenly choir and praise our Savior together once more and for eternity. I don't know how or why but My mom decided to visit a small baptist church in Pasadena. The first service we attended was a Wednesday night, I knew God answered my prayer, I got saved, and met bro richard, he attended light house on Thursdays so we started going on Thursday, and fell in love with the preaching ! I thank god for my young years in the church. The music programs and the choir, the lunch between morning and evening service, I loved it very much and sometimes wish I could go back to those days. Phil appeared and helped me learn "heart and soul". When someone shows you such kindness, it's easy to listen to their preaching. The years moved on and bro. Phil and sis. Robin became an incredible influence on my life. We would come to la Porte once a year for the March meeting, and being able to stay in their house was such a fun, encouraging time. I was about to graduate from high school and he was wondering what I was planning to do after graduation. I said that I was wanting to start learning how to be a seamstress and homemaker. He encouraged me to learn all that I can, stay in my Bible and stay with the Lord in and through everything no matter how hard life will get. Then as my family and I walked out of the church to leave he followed me out and gave a love gift to help me with getting my fist sewing machine.
