Christy was a kind and sweet lady whom I met when she adopted one of my chow puppies back in 2009. Our friendship grew over our mutual love of dogs. We spent many pleasant days together at dog shows and jewelry shows. I was not aware of her passing until today. I will miss her.

Sincere condolences to the family. I am so very sorry for your loss. May God provide the necessary peace and comfort to your family and friends during this difficult time. Please remember these words of encouragement from the Bible: " Jesus plainly told her: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." —John 11:20-25.

To the Taylor family may God put his loving hand on you and help you through this, God Bless. This poem is for the family: An Angel Took Me By The Hand Today an angel took my hand, as she quoted "Footprints in the Sand". Follow me, says the Lord, I will walk by your side. I will carry you always if in me you abide. So my faith in him has led me today To live with our Lord, to begin a new day. And though you cannot see me, I will always be around. Within your dreams and memories, There's a place I can be found. A gentle touch, a certain smell, a hint of laughter in the air Will let you know I'm not so far, for you I will be there. And when it's time to reunite within the promised land, The Lord will send an angel to take you by the hand.
