Taylor was truly a joy to be around. She was fun, silly, positive, selfless, and a friend to everyone she met. Her responsible, patient, and hardworking personality were also evident to all her interacted with her. Most importantly, Taylor sought to love Jesus well by loving those around her and being a light everywhere she went. Taylor attended Parkway Church in Pearland and was an active member of the youth group and volunteered in the children's ministry. She attended Berry Miller Junior High, where she was in the 8th grade and a member of the Yearbook committee. Taylor was also a member of the competitive gymnastics team at Alpha Omega Gymnastics in Pearland. She enjoyed being surrounded by her family and friends. In her spare time, she enjoyed sketching, journaling, shopping, camping, making jewelry, and doing her, and her friend's, nails and hair. Taylor aspired to be a fashion designer. Like a blink of the eye, she was gone far too soon, but God has taken a beautiful angel to be with him in heaven. Taylor's spirit and memory will live on in the hearts and minds of those whose lives she touched. A memorial service will be held for Taylor at 10:00 am, at Parkway Church, in Pearland, Texas.
