Urmila Baa's soul departed peacefully to be in comfort of Lord Krishna on October 4, 2022 at her home surrounded by her family. Her husband, Kantibhai's soul had departed last year at home as well.

Left to cherish Urmilaben's loving memory are her two sons Shailesh, Dr. Jayendra (Raju), two daughters Anjana, Kashmira , grandchildren Jay, Zeal, Rima, Deep and Dr. Shiv and host of many other family and friends. Urmilaben was born on November 2, 1938 in Demol, India and finished her early education in Kanjari, India.

She got married to Kantibhai and worked as an elementary school teacher before coming to United States in 1996. Her siblings will always remember her affection, kindness and helping nature. She was a loving and caring wife, mother and grandmother who cherished her family.

Guests and family members who visit her cannot leave before having meal or snacks at her home. Services will be held for Urmilaben on Sunday, October 9, 2022 at Clayton funeral home, 5530 West Broadway, Pearland, Texas at 10 am.
