Samuel "Sam" Hovanes Sahagian

JAN 1, 2021

Samuel Sahagian was born January 25, 1957 in Diyarbekir, Turkey. Sam loved Jesus more than anything in this world and on Thursday, September 23rd, he went on to meet his Creator face to face. Sam was devoted to his first love, Lorig, for over 45 years; a compassionate, generous father to his four children, Sammy, Seelva, Steve, and Seta; and a fun, adventurous Haga to his grandchildren Myla, Ace, Lily, and Leeland. He was a proud son of Hovanes and Oustian, as well as a source of friendship, wisdom, and guidance to his brother, sisters, and many nieces and nephews. However, Sam's legacy also includes hundreds of individuals to whom he became a close friend, confidant, or spiritual guide and for some even the equivalent of a father or brother. While his spirit is gone, the faith he shared and taught will be remembered by the lives he impacted and the people who were privileged to share in his love.

Samuel is preceded in death by his father Hovanes Sahagian; and mother Oustian Kuyoncu Sahagian. Left to cherish Samuel's memory are his loving wife, of 41 years, Lorig Sahagian; sons Sammy Sahagian, Steve Sahagian; daughters Seelva White and husband, Justin, Seta Sahagian; brother Jack Sahagian and wife Luciné; sisters Siran Allahverdian and husband, Serojh, Elise Barrett and husband, Jeff, Lucy Berberian and husband, David, Jackie Matussek and husband, Dennis; grandchildren Myla, Ace, Lily, Leeland; sixteen nieces and nephews; and one grandnephew.

Due to the National Cemetery guidelines, only a limited number of flower arrangements are allowed. In lieu of flowers, the family has requested that donations be made to Samuel's Go Fund Me page.

Services for Samuel will be held on Thursday, September 30, 2021, at Clayton Funeral Home, 5530 West Broadway, Pearland, Texas. The family has made a mandatory mask request. A Visitation is scheduled from 10:00 – 11:30 am. A Celebration of Life for Samuel will be held at

Mr. Sam had such a sweet spirit. The few times I saw him, he always shared a pleasant view about the Lord and carried with him the sweet Holy Spirit. We will continue to lift his beautiful family before the Lord. Love you Lorig and know I am keeping you in my prayers at all times.

I first met my dear friends Sam and Lorig when he and I was stationed at Homestead Air Force Base together. We spent many days working together and spending much time together on our off time. I have so many fond memories of those years. Sam was instrumental on me getting a job in Houston and I even purchased a home a few houses away from them. Sam and Lorig became as close as family to me and guided me in my spiritual growth. I have missed being near them and I will miss not to see my brother Sam. He was the finest man I have known.

Alicia Weaver and I have known Sam for many years. We want to send our condolences to Sam's family. Sam was always very helpful to us and to our real estate agents. He was a kind and an incredible human being who would go out of his way to help people. He was also the best real estate inspector in the Greater Houston area. He will be missed by many people!
