Bobby Jack Mochman

MAY 20, 2021

Bobby Mochman 75 passed away Thursday May 20. He is preceded in death by his parents; Robert and Bernie Wright Mochman, son; Robert Blaine Mochman, brothers; James Robert Mochman, and Joe Barton Mochman, sisters; Hattie Marie Mochman, and Dorothy Jean Fontenot. Left to cherish his memory are his loving wife, Peggy Fontenot, sons; B.J. Mochman Jr and wife Yemsi, and Sean Griffis and wife Brittany, daughter; Tana Pierce and husband Dean, sister; Evonne Reynolds, and grandchildren; Giselle, Derek, Weston, and Olivia, along with a host of other family and friends.

Bobby was known as a kindhearted man who cared about others. He was also known to be one who never met a stranger and would always strike up a conversation. His talkative nature really came out when the conversation was about politics, one of his favorite subjects. Bobby loved fast cars and was always amazed by them. He had a mechanical mind and could figure out how things worked, and if they needed repairing, he could probably fix it. Bobby was also an animal lover and had a special place in his heart for cats. He will be missed by all who knew and loved him.

Services for Bobby will be: Thursday May 27th Visitation 6:00 -8:00 pm, service Friday May 28th 10:00 am at the Clayton Funeral Home 201 S. 3rd LaPorte. Interment will follow at Grand View Cemetery in Pasadena.

Bobby Jack, the hours you spent talking with Larry Meek about Everything, from politics and cars, fixing all the worldly affair's, none were lost and all those memories are treasured.. We will miss you so much, Larry knew if he needed a sounding board.... You were the one he called!!!!.. We pray for Peggy , and her family to get through this heartfelt sorrow of your loss... You will be missed.... (God sent the angels to gently spread their wings and carry you to heaven free from suffering and pain..). Now you can watch all the westerns you want. God Bless you and your family! Love always, Larry and Marie Meek...
