Mahendrasinh Matilda was a man of the soil. He was born into a landowning farming family, and he grew up in the farming tradition. After marriage to Daxaba he settled into farming and domestic life. He maintained very good social connections and relationships with family and friends.He raised and educated both his sons with good moral values. He was always talkative and mixed well with everyone. His likeable manner Will be remembered by all who knew him. We enjoyed his regular phone conversations and he was always free with his opinions and commentary. We are glad to have known him closely.We will miss him as Will all who knew him.With sincere condolences from Heena & Mahendrasinh Kathwadia.
