Donnie served as our sales rep from Falcon Crest for many years. He was truly a kind and caring man, and a pleasure to work with. We truly enjoyed discussing Cajun food and joked about "bringing us some good gumbo from Louisiana", his trips to LA to visit his family, and whether the hurricanes, over the years, had affected his family. It truly saddened our hearts when we first knew of his illness and then were told of his passing. It is obvious that Donnie was a true gift to all who knew him. Our condolences and prayers go out to his family. Houston Aviation Center
