Obituary

David Lloyd Copeland

David loved to drive his grandkids to the bus stop every morning then go up to Browder's Marina to drink coffee and catch up on the latest gossip. He loved the Dallas Cowboys, NASCAR, and playing Dominos. You can bet there's a game of dominos happening right now in heaven. He loved the holidays, when the house was full of family and friends. He especially loved watching the little ones open presents. Frying turkeys was a big deal; no one could do it right without him overseeing things.

He fought a good fight with his health issues but on February 4th in his oldest grandson's arms he went home to Jesus. He is now at peace.

Always know he loved you all.

Services for David will be held Saturday, February 8, 2020 at Clayton Funeral Home, 201 S. Third Street, La Porte, Texas 77571. The visitation will be held from 2:00 until 3:00 pm with the funeral beginning in the chapel at 3:00 pm with Pastor DJ Dickerson officiating.
