Obituary of Carol Francis Leatherwood Please share a memory of Carol to include in a keepsake book for family and friends. View Tribute Book Carol Francis Leatherwood of Pearland, Tx was ushered into Heaven peacefully and on her “own terms” Saturday, October 19, 2019, in Houston, Tx surrounded by her family and many loving and dedicated employees of Cornerstone Specialty Hospitals Medical Center. Carol was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother and teacher that cherished family. She was truly the rock of the family and would go without before watching her children/grandchildren be in need. She supported her children while growing up as Brownie/Boy Scout Den Leaders, team mom for football/baseball and sewed all her daughter’s and friends dance recital costumes. Carol was strong in her Christian faith and loved the Lord with all her heart. She loved the song “Holy, Holy, Holy! Lord God Almighty! And would ask her daughter to play it repeatedly during her illness. She loved sewing, had a passion for family genealogy, cross-stitching, crossword puzzles and cooking for her family. Carol had an amazing sense of humor, was an avid reader and loved watching her favorite television shows, especially “Days of Our Lives.” Carol will be remembered for her stubborn determination and the wonderful “little nuggets” of inspiration she shared with her family throughout her entire life. But the most amazing thing about Carol was the love she had for her grandchildren. Her grandchildren meant the world to her. She loved reading, watching movies, playing dolls and trains with them when they were young. As the grandchildren grew up it was the little small talks that they had during their time together and at the end of their visit as the grandchildren walked down the hall they would say “See you later Alligator” and Carol’s response was always “in a while crocodile.” Carol is preceded in death by her parents, Howard and Mary Merlene Bell; and her loving husband of 48 years, Bobby Dean Leatherwood. Left to cherish her sweet memory are daughter, Mical Michelle Yee and husband Stephen;

Just learning and saddened by Carol passing. She was such a great comfort to my mother Diane while they shared a room together. She always let us know what was going on when we couldn't make it up there. During my visits up there she often shared stories about her family, showed what pictures she had . She was a joy to be around and visit with even on the days when my mom wasn't doing well and had faith strong for our Lord. I enjoyed being able to bring her things and share my time with her too. Happy though to know both her and my mom are having such a good visit and going places they both talked about. I pray you find peace and comfort in your many memories in the days, weeks and months to come. 2 Corinthians 4:17-18 For our light and momentary troubles are achieving for us an eternal glory that far outweighs them all. So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen, since what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal. Psalm 48:14 For this God is our God for ever and ever; he will be our guide even to the end.

She was always there to stick up for me when I was a kid and she was in school at Texas Tech, while dating my brother Bobby. I could always find myself going on a date with them. I love you Carol and will miss you.
