Miguel Angel Aguilar, 58, passed away Tuesday, September 17, 2019. Left to cherish his memory are his loving wife of 36 years, Yolanda Aguilar; children, Miguel Aguilar Jr. and wife Jessica, Elizabeth Aguilar-Moore and husband, Quinton, Pablo Aguilar, and Gabriela Aguilar; his grandchildren, Octavian Moore and Ellie Aguilar; his mother, Cecilia Aguilar; brothers, Juan Pablo Aguilar, Alejandro Aguilar; and a host of other family and dear friends.

Born in Santiago, Nuevo Leon in 1961, he moved to Houston in 1979. In 1992, he and his family moved to Pearland, Texas. When Miguel wasn't hard at work, riding his tractor, or being the grill master, he could be found fishing on his boat. Whenever there was an opportunity to get on the water, he took it.

Miguel and Yolanda loved to travel & explore new things. A lot of times, they did this as a family. Their favorite spot to spend time as a family was Walt Disneyworld. They enjoyed traveling in their RV, hiking, and always planned their next adventure.

Miguel was a proud and successful business owner for over 27 years. His work ethic and trust instilled in him by both customers and employees is something to be admired. His hard-working hands provided a beautiful and fulfilling life for his family. Through the good and the bad, Miguel always saw the good in everything.

His warm heart, passion for providing for others, and immense love saturated his family with comfort. Miguel was kind, generous, honest, loving, and an incredible provider. He never asked anything of others. He was a great cook, storyteller, and had such a comforting presence about him.

Tio Miguel, Our Walt Disney World pioneer. Thank you for welcoming me into your home when I needed security. Your daughter and I, will forever be your "laughing hyenas." I know you, are now with my apa. I know you both will take care of each other and catch up on all things mechanics and talk about the sea life. You will forever live in my heart. Say Hi to dad for me. See you later. I love you, your goddaughter Denise

Where does one begin to describe the sincerest of kindness or the generosity & hospitality from one of the humblest of spirits I ever had the privilege of meeting in my lifetime. I met Miguel & his lovely wife, Yolanda, through my wife Perla, at one of their family gatherings over a decade ago. Understandably, being the new face amongst old friends chatting away & catching up on lifes' progressions, its easy to feel a bit isolated or a little uncomfortable at first. Well, Miguel was that guy that would go out of his way to break away from the group to talk to you if he perceived you as being left out. It was always heartfelt too and you would immediately begin to abandon any reservations of being a stranger amongst old friends. This was a lasting impression that taught me to be as kind & hospitable to the stranger visiting my home as Miguel was to me when I was a stranger in his home. When I think of Miguel, I cannot help but think of Hebrews 13:2 which states "Do not forget to entertain strangers, for by so doing some have unwittingly entertained angels." By no means, am I referring to myself as any angel, however I know in my heart, that as kind as Miguel was to everyone, I am assured to believe at some point in his life he was indeed hospitable & even entertained heavenly angels. I am also certain Miguel will be welcomed to his new home with our Dear Lord, not as a stranger, but as one of God's very own. May your kind & gentle spirit rest in peace with our Father. Your Friends Eric & Perla

There are no words that will take away your heartache, but there is a heavenly Father that will keep you safe, will guide you and will heal your heart. I love each one of you very much. As we come together in the coming days, we no longer are saddened by the loss, but we celebrate Tio Miguel's life. The husband, the father, the grandfather, the uncle, the cousin, the son, the family man and the friend he was to each person he encountered. I bless all you with God's eternal love, peace and healing. Isaiah 41:10 So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.
