I remember one Saturday morning many many years ago waking to the smell of breakfast which normally would have been awesome. However this particular morning was after running around with Karen very late the nite before consuming large quantities of adult beverages. Anyway, Myrna was kindly and lovingly trying to convince me to eat that biscuit and promising it would help my day get better before I had to go to work. Well it may not have translated so funny in this writing but I am smiling and giggling in my heart to that memory and many others. Myrna helped me through some tough times just by spending time with me and other times just enjoying live like camping. She drove me to Galveston sea wall and we grabbed a bucket of chicken just to divert my attention from other things one evening. Such a sweetie! Always made me laugh.I'm thinking about you both Karen and Regina. Sending my regrets that I can't be there today. Hugging you both in my heart. Love, Loretta

I remember a time at Garner State park that Myrna camped out all night at the Ranger Station to obtain a particular RV spot that she wanted. The next morning a man thought he was going to take that spot. Myrna laid her body ACROSS IT while he was backing in and WOULD not BUDGE...after some yelling from both parties, the man finally gave up.....She got her spot! lolI loved DETERMINATION and SPUNK and will miss her!Deb
