Barry Kent Clark, 61, of Houston, Texas, passed away on January 24, 2019. He is preceded in death by his parents Joyce and Kenneth Yandell, and brother, Ricky Yandell.

Left to cherish his memory are his daughter, Nicole Sawatzky and husband, Daryl; sisters, Rebecca Martinez and husband, Ted, Kathy Hendley; and a host of other family and dear friends. Barry found joy in music, from country to rock and roll to Motown; and enjoyed dancing to all of it. He was an avid football fan and loved his Houston Texans, especially his favorite player JJ Watt. Barry liked being known as the old school cowboy and will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him.

Barry Kent was my oldest brother, my father, Robert "Mac" Clark's oldest son born prior to his relationship with my Mom, Helen Clark! I met Barry for the first time when I was about 13-14 years old. Mine and Barry's relationship grew very quickly because he was the big brother I never had! I loved him so and I've always had fond memories of him! He was going through a rough time when he lived with us along with his wife Esther and his baby girl, Nikki! It truly saddens me to know that I didn't know that he had passed away! Please know that he has and always will hold a special place in his little sister's heart! Love Penny Michaelle Clark West
