neighbors, or by caring for the needs of her own family. Reminiscent of the Proverbs 31 Woman, Marge was “clothed with strength and dignity” and could “laugh without fear of the future” because of her unwavering trust in Christ. She lived her life according to the truth found in scripture and never apologized for her steadfast faith. She honored and served her husband without complaint, treated those around her with kindness even when it meant constantly ignoring her own needs, and was a faithful prayer warrior for many, especially those she knew needed Jesus. Throughout her life Marge lived Matthew 6, choosing to store up treasure in heaven rather than treasure on earth. Loved well by her friends, neighbors, children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren alike, she was a woman who truly feared the Lord and for that, she is to be praised. A visitation and funeral service for Marge will take place at Rural Shade Baptist Church, 3304 County Road 2274, Cleveland, Texas 77327, on Thursday, November 29, 2018.
