It was impossible to stay in a bad mood when Aunt Titter was present. Her laughter and good humor were contagious. One of my fondest memories is when I drove her and two of her sisters to Mississippi for a casino run. The laughter never stopped. And, oh my, her pies were the best!

My Dear Robinson Family, I am so very sorry for your loss. I know you all are devastated by Ms Elizabeths passing. She is now with her Joe and I know that brings you all great comfort. She will be sorrily missed by everyone whose life she touched. I am so fortunate and honored to be among those who knew Mr & Mrs Robinson. They knew me too and still let me hang around. One of my most fond memories of the Robinson household is that it did not matter what time of the day or night there was always coffee brewing, it smelled great. Mr & Mrs Robinson laughing & talking at the dining table. God please continue to bless the Robinson family and keep them safe in your grace. Love, Murray & Hope Griffin

I have such great memories of Aunt Titter. She was always cheerful and loved to play games with the family. She enjoyed traveling and playing golf with her sisters. Her pies were out of this world. She will be missed so much.
