Obituary of Marion Theresa Hoff Please share a memory of Marion to include in a keepsake book for family and friends. View Tribute Book

Marion Hoff, Galveston's 1934 Mardi Gras Queen of the Indian Paintbrush, passed away September 9, 2018 peacefully at home surrounded by her children in La Porte, Texas.

Marion was born June 15, 1929 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Shortly after she was born, her parents and 2 older brothers moved to Galveston, Texas, where she attended Ursuline Academy and Galveston Ball High School.

On March 14, 1952, she married the love of her life, Jerry Hoff. In 1964, they moved their growing family to La Porte, Texas.

She is preceded in death by her parents, brothers and her husband, Jerry Hoff. She is survived by her children, Mark Hoff and wife JonAnne, Greg Hoff and wife Sheri, Kristen Barazi and fiancé, Chuck Lafon, JuleeAnna Lee and husband Mike.

Marion (Mawmaw) is also survived by grandchildren Kala Smith, Bryan Hoff, Brittany Hoff Suey, Havalie Barazi, Jwan Barazi, Broosk Barazi, Hannah Lee, Hunter Lee, and 4 great grandchildren.

The family wants to thank Maria Ocanas for the loving care she provided mom over the past five and a half years. Marion was "mom" to many. With her warm heart and bright smile, she welcomed all into her home.

Despite her declining health and failing memory, she continued to have strong Christian beliefs. Her family is at peace with her passing, knowing without a doubt she is home with our Lord and Savior.

My sweet precious friend Marion. You were sooooo much more than an employee, you were a dear friend to me and my family. Loved you so much and could sit with you for hours just talking and laughing. Rest in peace my sweet love. You certainly blessed a lot of people on earth.
