Obituary of Jean Louise Hagemeyer Please share a memory of Jean to include in a keepsake book for family and friends. View Tribute Book Jean Louise Hagemeyer, 94, of Pearland, Texas, passed away on August 18, 2018. She is preceded in death by her parents, Alta Libby and Charles William Opel, and husband, Elsworth Hagemeyer. Left to cherish her memory is her brother, Paul Opel and wife, Lois; sisters, June Pape and Naomi Weller; many nieces and nephews, and a host of other family and dear friends. Jean was born September 10, 1923 in East St. Louis, Illinois. She married the love of her life, Elsworth Hagemeyer, on May 17, 1963 in Edwardsville, Illinois. Although she had no kids of her own, Jean was like a grandmother to her nieces and nephews. She enjoyed helping people, family, friends, and neighbors. Extremely strong in her faith, she loved God and lived to please him to prepare for the day she would be with him. Jean wrote this poem just a few months ago: The shuttle is slowing, And soon will cease to fly. The loom will be silent, The weaving will be done. Then the resurrection, Oh, glorious dawning, Eternal life is won. A visitation and funeral service for Jean will be held at Clayton Funeral Home, 5530 W. Broadway, Pearland, Texas 77581, on Thursday, August 23, 2018. The family will begin welcoming family and friends for a visitation at 10:00 am and the service will start at 11:00 am, with Westin Price and Kenion Bryant officiating. Interment will follow at SouthPark Cemetery in Pearland, Texas.

We met Jean when she came to live at Pecan Grove. She was a precious lady that I (Ronda) loved to sit and visit with. She was a fine example of a faithful life. We were privileged to know her. She will be missed but we have joy knowing she is at peace now. Our condolences to her family.

My condolences go out to the family of this dear lady who was a pillar in the church. She was clearly a child of God as she had many fruits of the Spirit: faith, joy, hope, charity, patience, etc. Jean was safe to confide in and solid in the truth.
