Margarita, my dear aunt, was an extraordinary woman. She loved The Lord God. Her heart was so big, she would take this love and shared it with everyone around her. I admired her. I am sure she is in heaven in God's arms. I am deeply moved for her departure. She meant a lot to me and to her family and friends. She was a loving wife, a sister, a mother and grand mother. Throughout her life she showed determination and faith. She was a religious woman, a nurse, a doctor, and entrepreneur, a teacher. With no doubt, a great Mexican and American woman that will be missed so much. My heart and prayers to Bruce, her husband, to all of us and to all our family and friends. God rest her soul. We love you Margarita! Sincerely, Eduardo Dessavre Davila

My deepest sympathy to Bruce and his family along with Margarita's family and friends. I remember the last time I visited with her. It was 5+ years ago. We had lots of fun and we met another friend of ours from UTMB. I will always remember our good times working at UTMB and all the tennis we played. God Bless Her. I'm sorry I didn't get to see her again. I'll never forget her.
