To the family of Xico Vega: My deepest sympathies to y'all. Xico was a friendly guy who touched so many people. He will be deeply missed by me at a site where I do security. We use to joke around when he would come to the gate to make a delivery. Its such a tragedy that everyone in the family and friends must go thru. Dealing with the loss of Xico is the hardest part. But with God's help and prayers you can make it. Just remember all the good times. Xico is smiling down and will always be with you in your heart. Y'all will be in my prayers and my heart goes out to y'all during this time.

As a Pokemon GO fan and a frequent raider alongside Xico, D1rk was the life of the party come every raid. He was the reason I looked forward to every raid. He was like a shining beacon in the Silph Road community, and always bragged about his shinies on Discord. Heheh... Well D1rk, You'll always be my Shiny, deep down in my heart. You're the one who kept me in the Silph Road, and you're the one I always looked forward to chatting with at the raids. Alas, we were cut one meeting short, and I still have an oath to keep. Blessed be D1rk, and rest in peace. I'll be trying to fulfill that oath one last time. You will be missed, dear friend.

Xico was a great man and a gentle giant. It's difficult to understand why god would choose to take someone so caring from his friends and family on earth. Xico and I go back to the days he was managing Papa John's in Copperfield. Many great late nights hanging out and shooting the breeze. My love of the Rockets and his love of the Mavericks always lead to "interesting" conversations typically leading to cash being put on the table! I hope his family, specifically Netzo, is hanging in there and focusing on all of the great times. I'll keep you all in my prayers. Respectfully, Jeff Crook

Xico was a great friend of mine through middle school and high school, often called me "Fergie". He was always laughing, cracking jokes, and being the gentle giant that we all loved. I am sending my deepest condolences to Xico's family and friends. I'll be thinking of you during the Cowboys games. I am going to miss our post game talks! You will be missed bro! Rest In Peace.

To the Vega Family, We are all saddened to hear about the passing of our dear Xico. We remember him as a kind and gentle soul who was a force on the football field - carrying us to many monumental victories. We also remember him as a math wiz who outperformed most students while taking the most advanced courses our school offered. He left us sooner than we would've liked, but we are immensely grateful for the time we had him. His void in our class will never be filled. We pray that the family feels surrounded by love in this incredibly difficult time. We are here for you. With love, Ross S. Sterling C/O 2002

We are here for you in your time of loss. May you find comfort in cherished memories. May you find strength in companionship. Though our words can do little, we hope that our thoughts and prayers will support you at this time. Xico was one of a kind, he will forever live in our memories and in our hearts. Have comfort in knowing that in the time that I got to spend and know Xico there wasn't a dull moment or person that he couldn't make laugh or feel welcome. He was a very great person to know and even more to have as a friend. Xico will be missed dearly, though he may no longer be here in person he will always be here in spirit. Heaven has forever gained an angel to look upon all that knew him and that he cared for dearly. May he forever rest in peace.
