She played in the Bell Choir known as “A Joyful Noise”. Ruth, also served as a greeter and enjoyed being part of the Bible Marking Ministry, but her greatest joy was serving with the Epiphany Funeral Ministry. Ruth loved helping families through this difficult time in their lives and was always there to assist the funeral homes with setting up and making sure everything was perfect. Her kind and smiling face was always welcomed by everyone that came to services at the church. Ruth loved spending time with her family and grandchildren who affectionately called her “MomMaw”. She will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved her. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Epiphany Lutheran Church, Pearland. My favorite patient of all time, I always remember the times when i was having a bad day at work but then you would show you and made me laugh. You were more than just a patient, you became a friend of mine. Thanks for all the laughs, stories, but mostly thank you for all the hugs you gave me. You will be missed Ms. Roos.

To the Roos Family,My condolence go out to the Roos family. My heart is truly heavy. Ms. Ruth, as I would call her, was a true inspiration to me. As a kid she would write me inspirational notes to encourage me to press forward as a kid. Many of those notes I still have today. Thank you for being an inspiration in my life.Curry Jones
