Susan "Susu" Bell Eades, 68, passed away peacefully January 17, 2018. She was preceded in death by her parents, Thomas and Mary Ann Smith; and sister, Patricia Smith.

Susu is survived by her husband, Dr. James Eades of Houston; her son, Steven Reed and wife, Marylyn; step daughters, Betsy Eades and husband, Greg Renfro, Pamela Eades and her husband, Keith Singer; sisters, Rebecca Smith, Marion Kahalewai and her husband, Alvin, Debbie Killingsworth and husband, George; grandchildren, Nick Hubbard, Lacy and Caroline Reed, Haley, Jacob and Audrey Renfro, Emily and Amanda Singer ; nieces, Robin Killingsworth and Alyssa Kahalewai; nephews, Michael Rehmeier, Rex Rehmeier and his wife, Kimberly; great niece and nephew, Cecily and Logan; and a host of other family and friends.

Susu was born October 14, 1949 in Tyler, Texas and was the oldest of five sisters. A life-long student of the teachings and message of Jesus Christ, she shared her light and love with everyone in her circle of family and friends. Susu was always ready to offer prayers in your time of need.

Her time and attention were primarily focused on the success and happiness of her children, grandchildren, nieces and nephews. But her caring, generous nature extended past her family. Susu found immense joy in supporting and nurturing her grandchildren and planning and participating in all events from kindergarten to college graduations. She was everyone's biggest cheerleader and loved to celebrate other's achievements.

Susu always made holidays, birthday and graduations special. She found solace in the beauty of nature. Susu enjoyed watching birds, butterflies and visiting the wildlife sanctuaries and beaches along the Texas coast and especially loved Smith Woods on High Island during migrations and nesting seasons.

I will always remember how Susan sent cards and treats to us after my daughter's kidney transplant in 2009. It was a special surprise. She was always sweet and kind to us even though I'm her husband's niece. She even came to visit us when my son was in Houston for a chess tournament. She was quick to "like" Facebook posts and would also write beautiful hand-written letters. She was thoughtful & will be missed.

At year one of your life you became my big sister. Then big sister to Marion, Debbie and Patty. Big Sister turned out to be a lifetime job. You were mature for your years and helped create order in the midst of chaos for many years of our early life. You took on responsibilities and made life more organized and rational all of us for decades. I want to acknowledge you for the sacrifices you made in life for the good of others. You filled in the breaches when loved ones around you floundered. You were forgiving and self-less and worked tirelessly to benefit even those (myself included) who did not fully appreciate your sacrifice. You found your happiness in the happiness of others. You may have lost some of yourself along the way and I pray you will have an 'abundant life' in the Lord now with peace and joy and freedom.
