Andrea was a very humanitarian person. She liked to help people and interact with her neighbors. Her cooking was delicious. She was very protective over her family brothers/sister, cousins, her kids, nieces/nephews and grandchildren. She was very cheerful and such a great dancer. She organized everything making sure it came out great. Her house was spotless no matter the time of the day whoever was to go to her house she would always offer them to eat. That made her feel really good. But one thing, nobody does the rice like she does delicious like Mama Yeya! She was loved by many people.
