He is preceded in death by his beloved son David Anzaldua, his parents Niceforo P. and Emilia M. Anzaldua, 3 brothers and 3 sisters. Surviving him are his wife of 65 years Lucinda Garza Anzaldua and his children: daughter Sally A. Zimmerman (Allan), Dr. Joe Anzaldua (Julie), Mario Anzaldua, and his niece Cecilia Garza whom he considered his daughter, his grandchildren: Martin Caldera, Saraliza Anzaldua, Justin Caldera, Matthew Anzaldua, Lauren Anzaldua, Andrew M. After high school he joined the Army and served in the Korean War from 1951 to 1953, at which time he received his Honorable Discharge. He was employed by G.D. Searle Pharmaceutical before coming to La Porte to work for Velsicol Chemical Plant.

He was a fanatic of the Dallas Cowboys and always enjoyed the La Porte Bulldog Baseball team at their games. After the David Scholarship Fund was created he took great pride in knowing that in some small way the Anzaldua Family was able to help La Porte students continue their college education. He was a very generous man, always ready to help anyone in need. He always met the needs of his family and was a great example to them. His family always came first – especially his beloved grand and great grandchildren.

Paul U. Lee Funeral Home in La Porte is in charge of arrangements: Vigil will be held on Sunday, November 12th from 3:00 to 7:00 P.M., Rosary will be recited from 7:00 to 8:00. On Monday,
