Gig and family. Don D. Thornton here. I am sad to learn of Sheron Kaye's passing, but joyful that she is with her Savior, whom she loved more than anything and served with all she had. I remember, as a struggling music evangelist, when she invited me to go with her into Texas prisons and minister in music. We also went to Hobby Airport and set up in one of the passageways to the gates. I'll bet you can't do that today. I will always remember that she gave me those opportunities to share her ministry. This year will be 52 years in the work of evangelism and still singing and sharing the love of Christ to a lost and dying world. Be blessed, DT

The loss of a loving mother is tragic, however when you add counselor, friend, confidant, and other adjectives you get Sheron. She was a very special lady and I send prayers to the family letting them know that others will miss her too.

This was some of the saddest news I've heard in a long time. This beautiful lady fought an amazing fight that most of us would never have been able to endure. She was so lucky to have you Gibb and an amazing family to support her along the way. I know she has no more pain and she is rejoicing in heaven with the Angels. God bless her family Who is strong and will miss her dearly. Rest In Peace Sheron I feel blessed to have met you and listen to the kind words you always spoke to me.
