She was also part of the group that organized the original La Porte Main Street Association in 1983 and was active in that support group for many years.

Over the years Imogene developed a passion for family history. After doing extensive research, she became a member, and at times board member, of the Daughters of the American Revolution, the Daughters of the Republic of Texas, War of 1812, and Daughters of the Confederacy.

In recent years she made family scrapbooks for her great-granddaughters and published family history books of John's and her ancestors.

At a later date she will be buried in the Truett family cemetery, a Texas historical cemetery.

In lieu of flowers contributions to an animal shelter of your choice would be appreciated.
