René Catherine Hank, 78, passed away, Wednesday, August 16, 2017. Born July 16, 1939, to Armand and Ethel Zenon in Lafayette, Louisiana, René Catherine "Cat" Zenon broke the mold upon arrival. Truly there will never be another woman as sacrificially loving, spunky, devoted or long suffering as she.

She grew up with the love of a large southern family understanding what it meant to work hard. "Cat" as she was known by family, was preceded in death by her parents and three brothers, Edward, David and Lucien Zenon. She grew up knowing how to keep her home and cook very well at a young age.

Upon graduation from Carver High School in 1958, Rene' received the Pillsbury National Baking Award for her homemade biscuits as well as a full ride College Culinary Scholarship. Some of her specialties included boudin, Gumbo, etouffees and pretty much anything she put in her hands to create.

She loved her husband, Charles Lee Hank II who swept her off her feet in Chicago, Illinois. Together they gave life to Carlos, Carl and Charlene, and she extended her mother's love to Charles Hank II, Anthony Hank and Belinda Whitfield. Her dream of one big happy family came true.

Mrs. Hank lived life to the fullest and truly found pleasure in being a part of the daily lives of her children. She was her children's biggest cheerleader and ultimate fan! She bragged about her children's accomplishments every chance she got.

Her huge heart and love for the Lord compelled her to be a caregiver to both her parents and her step mother before their passing. Her career paths lead her to be a Nurse, Union Construction

Today is Valentine's Day- the first since you've left us, and you and Grandfather have been on my mind since the moment I opened my eyes this morning. Sadness comes over me as I miss you soo... I can still feel you and remember your love on special days like today and always. BUT what stands out are the memories of how much you and grandfather loved and celebrated EVERY Holiday!! It was always EXTRA special in your house! It brings me Joy to know that you are both together again in Love and in the Lord... I miss you both and pray your memory never fades. I love you always, Your Scooby
