My deepest sympathies for the loss of a great man. I knew him as a wonderful, caring, and devoted man. You all can count on me and my family to be there with you whenever you need us. Sra. Martha you have a daughter in me as I have known you all my life and I care very much for you, know that you are not alone and that I love you dearly. I give you my ph. #832-497-7773 since we only spoke when by chance I would answer my mother's phone and it was you on the other end. However, we could speak like old friends without skipping a beat. Take care of one another in this time of sadness. Love, Edna Vasquez Pena

My condolences to the Escobedo family on the passing of your dad great man. He will be missed by all who knew him, but the memories of time shared will live with us. He had some great stories I remember him and your mom sitting with my folks talking about their good old days in Piedras Negras. Our prayers go out to you my friends... Carlos and Rosa Vasquez
