She had a servant heart not only for her patients at work but also for her friends and family. As a single mother, Gussie's strong work ethic made her a force to be reckoned with. She was a wonderful provider. Gussie never missed a day of work and always balanced her career so that she was there for her family for all occasions. She was a strong and independent woman her entire life and found great comfort in sharing stories and talking with her family. Praying right now in Jesus name for the Gunn family on the loss of their mother. I've been there before with losing my father to cancer more than 10 years ago. May God grant you peace, security, and a sound mind to know that God never makes a mistake and she is now in a place of no worries, no struggle and most importantly no more pain. God bless each and every one and may God keep. You is my prayer.-Kevin Edwards
