Melissa and Nick We will all miss seeing our good neighbor Bo outside in his van, throwing the football with Nick, or taking care of your yard. He was always so friendly and easy to talk to. He was so very proud of his family. We pray that God will comfort you and guide you through this sad time.

I only met Bo in January, but even in the short time we were friends it was clear that he loved our God, his wife, and his son. Through the most difficult times he kept his priorities - faith and family. I wish I had known him longer but he made a lasting impact on me even in our short time together. Prayers to his family.
