Mom, I was so lucky to have you in my life and as a role model. You taught me how to be a great mother, wife, teacher, and a strong woman. I already miss you more than you know. My babies miss you so much! I'm so grateful that we had a special bond these last years. I have been replaying great memories in my head. One of the best ones was last winter's ski trip to Ruidoso, New Mexico. Even though you were unhealthy and couldn't ski, it was so amazing to have you there with me and my family, especially the children. Austin cried to me last night that the ski trip was his favorite memory of Mimi. You will live on within me and I promise to be the best person I can be for you. I love you so much! Love, Kim
