My condolence to her beautiful family. She was one of my best friends I met working at the Post Office. I had been searching for her for some time now. This is truly a big shock to me. I had written her letters, but wasn't sure if I still had the correct address. Beautiful person, warm, kind hearted, beautiful spirit and so much more. WORDS can't express how this aches at my heart. She's truly missed. I love you Tami. Sorry I didn't find you much sooner.

I will miss and love Tami forever. She was such a friend. We would walk into work together from the parking lot way in the back. Then in the mornings we would walk back to our vehicles to leave. Tami was truly a sweetheart and inspiration.

My hearts bleeds at the loss of such a precious life. Tami was a beautiful light in anyone's life who was lucky enough to cross paths with her. Growing up, she was like a second mother to me and many others. She opened her home and her heart to all of us and I will never forget the love I was blessed to feel from her. My heart is broken for her daughter Amanda, my lifelong childhood friend and her father Tim. Life without Tami will never be the same, but with the supernatural strength from God and undying love from their family and friends, I pray one day they will smile again (rather than cry) at all of the beautiful precious moments they shared which can never be taken away. Those memories will be forever yours. I love you and will be keeping you all in constant prayers.

So very saddened and sorry for the loss of this sweet, precious lady. Tami and I hadn't seen each other lately, but when we reconnected and talked on-line, we easily and readily picked up as if the years were just empty spacers. I hope knowing what a wonderful, dear friend she was to me helps in some tiny way.

Tami was my friend for over 15 years. I'll miss her greatly, but I know where she is and that I'll see her again. Tami was a loving, smart, funny, and extremely loyal friend. As a Christian, she never had judgement on anyone, just a kind, forgiving nature. I'll miss all our little inside jokes, and the sight of your beautiful face and sunny smile. Save a seat for me, so we can catch up when I get where you are!
