Mr. O was one of my dearest patients. I had the pleasure of greeting him when he came in and assisting him with his appointments. He was always the first one here, bright and early! He was always so pleasant, so sweet and so sincere and such an humble, genuine person. I surely do miss seeing him in the clinic, but I know he is in a far better place beyond our wildest dreams! My sincerest condolences to Mrs. O and your family. May the peace of the Lord give you all strength and forever cherish your precious memories close to your heart! Mr. O is greatly missed! Peace and Blessings to each of you! Chasity
