I just received the heartbreaking news this morning about Rosalyn's passing. I would frequent the restaurant where she worked. A co-worker and I would eat there in the mornings, and we would always seek out Rosalyn because we wanted to sit in her section. She would take care of us and more importantly we loved her beautiful personality. She was a beautiful person inside and out. I will truly miss seeing her and I regret not having the opportunity to get to know her on a more personal level. My heart and prayers go out to her family, friends, and her beautiful daughter whom she adored and loved very much.
