I was so sorry to hear of Mike's passing. Mike served as the bailiff in court in San Saba where I began practicing law, and always greeted me with a smile and warm handshake. He always went out of his way to help whenever he could, and was a welcome face in the courtroom. He somehow always seemed to know how long it would take a jury to deliberate, and what their verdict would be...we used to laugh about that often. He will be missed. My condolences to his family.
