She will forever be remembered for her unique, amazing heart, her warrior spirit, and her steady persevering force. Erica loved many and many loved her. She took to heaven, for God's eternal glory, a great deal of love and prayers from family, friends and strangers. Erica will absolutely be deeply missed by those who knew and loved her.

I am so sorry for the loss of such a beautiful person. I was able to meet Erica once and she was so soft spoken, sweet, and had such a beautiful spirit. I followed her Facebook page every chance I could and she was such an inspiration to me and everyone that I saw post on her page. She kept smiling until the very end. I loved how she took us through her journey with cancer, showing her fight, showing her strength, showing how cancer was not going to beat her and tear her down. She made me look at myself and stop worrying about the small stuff because look at her battling such a huge monster with such grace and elegance. She remained beautiful inside and out and she will always be someone I look up to. Erica, you will be missed by so many people but I promise that your memory will last forever. Brandon, I love you with all of my heart. You will always be my "Chuck" my little "Chipmunk"... I have watched you grow into a handsome, gentle, and strong man who has been a loving husband to Erica and a caring father to Ily. Even though I don't get to see you often, please know that I am always here for you. I love you Erica and I know that you are up there swimming with God and Jesus...
