Harold "Eddie" Anders

MAY 11, 2014

Harold "Eddie" Anders Jr., 52, lost his battle with esophageal cancer on Sunday, May 11, 2014. He leaves behind his loving wife Julie, children: Courtney and Daniel Anders, step daughter Lauren Wyant (Richard), granddaughters Addison, Paige, Emma and Tori Wyant and his mother Wanda Pierce Anders, plus many other family and friends.

Eddie is preceded in death by his father Harold Anders Sr. and sister, Deborah Anders Seedorf.

Eddie grew up in Farmer's Branch, Texas and attended R.L. Turner High School. He went on to become an Aircraft Maintenance Mechanic and was working at Southwest Airlines in Houston, Texas.

Eddie's wishes were to be cremated.

In lieu of flowers, please make a donation to the Esophageal Cancer Education Foundation at fightec.org or to an animal rescue organization of your choice. A memorial service for Eddie will be held on Saturday, June 7, 2014 from 4:00 until 7:00 pm at the 1940 Air Terminal Museum at 8325 Travelair Street, Houston, TX 77061.

One of the nice guys that will truly be missed here at Southwest Airlines. Eddie was always willing to help anyone with anything. He had a great sense of humor and loved to share it with his coworkers, sometimes all it took for him was a simple hand gesture to bring a smile to someone's face. We will all miss you and will never forget you. My condolences and prayers to the family.

I grew up across the street from Eddie and always looked up to him as a big "cool" brother. I was so excited 5 or 6 years ago when we were reacquainted on Facebook—I had moved away in high school. Julie, I am so sorry for your loss and so glad I've got to know you on Facebook, also. Eddie will be missed on Earth, but what a grand reunion that must have been for Eddie, his dad and Debbie! Continued prayers for the family....

Loved the little boy with blonde hair, a cow-lick, and a mischievous smile. He was one of my only friends in 2nd grade. He was accepting of everyone and made friends easily.Loved the kind, funny man with the dark blond hair and beard peppered with gray. He was one of many friends I've had as an adult but still one of a kind. Many condolences to his sweet wife, Julie, his children and grandchildren and mom and siblings.We reconnected in 09 and it was if we had never lost touch.Eddie. ...start looking for a venue because when we all get together again. ...it's gonna be a party.

Ms. Julie my heart is broken for you I know how happy Mr. Eddie has made you. You both were a match made in heaven. God must have needed a great man above to take him from you. I know right now it all just hurts. I am so sorry. You and your family will be in our prayers. All my love, Sue Brewer
