Wendy Kay Threlkeld Watts

November 25, 1969 - November 19, 2013

Wendy Kay Threlkeld Watts, 43, of La Porte, Texas passed away on November 19th, 2013. She was born in Houston, Texas on November 25th, 1969 to Dennis Threlkeld and Pamela Smart. "You are my sunshine; my only sunshine, you make me happy when skies are gray", truly is a perfect tune to describe how Wendy Kay Threlkeld Watts chose to live her life. Wendy Imprinted a legacy in many hearts with her radiant smile alone and throughout her journey one thing that truly remained was her beautiful spirit and move forward outlook on life. God was always bigger than everything and she stayed focused on His plan and continued to stand on His promises through the sunshine and the storm. Wendy was a tremendous inspiration to everyone she came in contact with and left a mark of Christ on their life. She strived to live as the hands and feet of Jesus and showed her love for the Lord through her tender and caring heart. Wendy was dancing and praising with Jesus on November 19, 2013 surrounded by her family after a long and courageous journey. While it may seem the battle was lost, her fight should serve as an example how to face mountains with strength, dignity and grace. Wendy indeed fought the good fight, finished the race, and kept her faith. She will always be our sunshine. She is survived by her husband Tony Watts, children Amanda Melton and husband Michael, Cody Kokes, Kelsey Kokes, Tony Watts, JR, Austin Watts, grandchildren Cohen Joe Taylor Watts, Maci Kay Melton, parents Dennis Threlkeld, Pamella Deberry and husband Martin, brother Reggie Threlkeld and wife Kristi, grandparents Sarah Mae Smart, Iris Marie Threlkeld, and numerous nephews, nieces, aunts, uncles, and extended family and friends. Visitation will be Friday November 22nd, 2013 from 6:00PM to 9:00Pm and the celebration service will be Saturday November 23rd, 2013 10:00AM all at First Assembly of God in La Porte, Texas.
