I am very saddened. Mr Boyer was my defense attorney in 1992. He was a very honest attorney and a well-rounded guy. I never forgot him and I never will. To the family, my deepest condolences. I was looking up Toby to send him a copy of my book, but as I sit here on this Sunday morning, I am crushed. Rest in peace Mr. Boyer.

Hi Megan and Melissa, I am so sad to hear about Toby. We learned about his death on Monday, and I looked for information about services, but didn't find anything that day. When I searched again today, I saw that we'd missed the services held last night at Sugar Creek Baptist. I'm sorry that we missed it, as I would have loved to have paid tribute to your dad who was such a wonderful person, and to hug your necks. Know that we're thinking of you, and keeping you in our prayers. Sending love and hugs!
