I Knew " El Hermano Rios" since I was a little boy. I learned how to play drums in Church with Bro. Rios and his son Marcos. I will never forget this man. He was an inspiration to my life with his talent and kindness. God Bless him and his family.

Gilbert, Mary Lou, Josie, Marcus and Angie, My heartfelt condolences go out to you and I pray that God's comforting hand will give you peace. I will miss listening to my "Tio" singing and playing his 12-string guitar and accordion which he so much loved to play. I will never forget how he would encourage me to sing in church and how I tried to learn how to play guitar which he later ended up buying that guitar from me because I stuck at it! Love you, your cousin Norma
