Mark was a long time friend and co-worker and his passing will greatly missed. You could always count on Mark for a favor, advice, or to lift you spirits with a quick joke. His professionalism and work ethics went above and beyond at all times, but always placed his family above all else. Mark was a long time friend and I will miss him always.

It is with great sadness that we all say goodbye to Mark. What a wonderful man he was. He was a true portrayal of what all humans should strive to be. Caring, loving, and one of those rare people who cared what your answer to the question "How are you doing?" was. We have gret sadness in our hearts for our dear friends John, Lea and Frank and Ann and the grandbabies, Ann, and Selena. We love you all and anything we can do just let us know.Nathan and Toshia Crowe
