Paul Michael Purdon

JAN 23, 2012

Paul Michael Purdon, Jr., 75, passed away on January 23, 2012. He is preceded in death by his parents, Paul and Victoria Purdon; son, Michael Purdon; and brother, Jim Purdon. Paul was survived by son, Steve Purdon; daughters, Stephanie Finley, Shelly Yeager and her husband, Jim; sisters, Mary Frances Ames, Kathleen Holden and her husband, Fred, and Carol Wheeler-Dodds and her husband, Rick; several grandchildren and great grandchildren; and a host of other family and friends.

Paul loved people and enjoyed the food service business for most of his life. He looked forward to great conversations and especially liked watching college and high school basketball. Paul was a successful restaurant owner for many years in Iola, Kansas. He served his country in U.S. Army and was in the Honor Guard at Arlington National Cemetery. Paul had a strong faith and was a parishioner at St. Thomas Moore Catholic Church in Houston. He was the oldest of five brothers and sisters and was always there to help his siblings as they were growing up. Paul will be greatly missed by all that knew and loved him.

A memorial service for Paul will be held at a later time. Online condolences may be left for the family at www.claytonfuneralhomes.com.

I was very sad to hear of Paul's passing. He was my boss in Houston years ago. A kind and gentle man he was. I had also met his son too, many times. I am so sorry for your loss. I will never forget Paul or the lessons he taught me at such a young age, and his true sympathy for me when my father passed. God Bless you all, sincerely teddy posted on January 12,2013

Dear Steve, Stephanie, and Shelly, Our prayers are with your family in this trying time. I do remember Paul (many years ago) and know he was a great Dad. My family had many meals at Menegays and remember how friendly he was to all us kids. The last time we got to see you all was at Leona's here in Arizona. Miss her too! Will say a prayer for all of you tonight and always remember the good he showed to you. Thanks for having you all in my memory. Seems like time has past so fast. God Bless You All!!!Bill, Lori,Kyle, and Cody Gray Glendale, Arizona
