Eddie was a jewel of a person and one of the kindest and most thoughtful people in our class. His service to our country, his church and his family speak volumes about his character, integrity, and loyalty. The Class of 1960 has lost another shining light.

I served with Eddie in the Army Reserves and always enjoyed being with him. I hadn't talked to him since 1994 when I retired. Recently, I saw him at the 4th Degree, Knights of Columbus Exemplification in Houston and reacquainted myself again. I always respected Eddie and will miss him. I wish his family well and know they can be comforted in the fact that he is with God and will greet us upon our arrival one day.
